CITATIONS FOR

Hersey E. Miller, M.D.

Ability to put any problem in perspective, enthusiasm to teach and make the student a part of the health care team, and an easy going manner make him a unique person and physician.

House staff Sara H. Sinal, M.D.

Her dedication to her patients, her composure in the face of any situation, and her concern for the students make her an outstanding physician.

Aah Choo!!

"Mmm—peppermint!"

"What tapes"

"They've done what to the rabbits"

"Two Buds, please."

"Two Beauts!!"

"Yes, there is a Kveim Test."

All plugged in and no place to go.

"Who moved my office?"

"Oh, just doing a hone survey.

"It sure looks like a heart to me.

It's really liquified Peanut Butter!!

"1 do,

"These parties always get me right here."

"Don't cut the hair, just lower the ears."

"Want to see me write with my toes?"

"Well, Thanks fellows!"

"If I see one more gravid uterus, I'll scream!!"

If that were really a JAMA, would he be smiling?

"Maybe we could do another test."

"I never forget a

"Caught you, Glenn."

CLAP REPORT this month.

Is this the men's room?

"Pat Who???"

"I personally find that sort of thing repulsive."

Would you buy a used guinea pig from this man?

Slurrrp

"...uh...oh....I was just...uh..."

"May I go now?"

"Here's one I did on Soul Train.

This is how I test for stress incontinence.

Two of a kind?

"Sam, you can't still believe we cure people!"

Roberts, not you again!

Would the real Chris Barnard please stand up.

"There ought to be an easier way to get bodies for next year."

"The horse's what?"

'You've been hearing a lub what?!"

"Speak to me, Egor!"

"Just where did we put the specimen?"

"What income tax return?"

Introducing CUNIFIPW. The clinical blood flowmeter from CME. CLINIFLOW is a precision instrument designed specifically for clinical applications where patient safety and simplicity of operation are of paramount importance. A truly isolated input circuit provides the ultimate in patient isolation, even when external recording devices are connected. The CLINIFLOW System offers a new level of convenience and ease of operation. The operator simply dials the given pre-calibrated probe factor and adjusts the zero if needed. Volumetric flow rate is displayed directly in ml/min on a large, easy-to-read digital indicator. Range and decimal point settings are automatically established. CME's long recognized standard of quality is uncompromised in the
